"YOUR VOTE WILL KEE " IT IN ITS PLACE." "

ONLY VOTES COUNT!

Next Week Tells the Verdict of the Ohlo Voters.

The Duty of Ohio Republicans Set Before Them as It Really Is, With All the Democratic Trappings Stripped Off.

Nothing but votes will be counted next Tuesday. Hot air will not cut any figure in the ballot box or the official returns. If you really mean to stand by President Receivelt and his promise to maintain the McKinley policies and to sustain the McKinley principles, there is just one way in the world to do it, and that is to get out and vote and get your neighbors out to vote, and vote that way.

The president's political opponents talk very smoothly about the wickedness of McKinley's friends standing by McKinley's principles, but if that is not done in Ohio, and if the principles that McKinley opposed should win by default next Tuesday, it would be hailed just the same as a glorious Democratic victory, as the overthrow of McKinleyism, and as a terrible warning to Roosevelt to do different things from those to which he is in honor pledged.

The 96,000 voters who were short on the Republican side four years ago in this state from McKinley to Bushnell, ought to cast their ballots next Tuesday, and tens of thousands of others from among the ranks of the opposition, by men who have in their own business and in their own investments reaped the rich results of the Republican restoration of prosperity that the Democratic ascendency had destroyed.

The Ohio Democrats pretend to talk each other's ideas about it. They pretend to have thrown free silver overboard, with all its dangers, but that faction is still strong, and ready to grasp the power in that party at the first opportunity. The only thing that they agree upon is their platform declaration of 1991, for "the abolition of the protective tariff system, and the restoration of consumption. Of course it's the traditional Democratic policy of a tariff for revenue"--that is, the Wilson bill or worse, which was the occasion of all of our wees.

That measure threw thousands and tens of thousands of men out of work, cut down wages for millions, and will do the same thing again, just as soon as the Democratis get back into power to try it once more. Every vote not for Nash will be a vote for another

Every vote not for a Republican for the legislature, in house and senate, will be a vote for Tom Johnson, the single-taxer and free trader, or for John R. McLean. It will be a vote to defeat Senator Foraker, the protectionist, and a vote to put half a dozen Democratic free traders in congress from Ohio in place of that many Republican protectionists.

Who can afford to stay away from the polls? Who can afford to neglect his duty with his own ballot, and in getting out the votes of others, when there is so much of the highest national consequence at stake?

DON'T BE FOOLED!

Any Democrat who believes his party will carry the election in Ohio this year is simply deceiving himself. There is no doubt of a sweeping Republican victory next month.-Cleveland Leader.

In order to keep Mr. Bryan out of the state the Democratic committee in Ohio has decided that no speakers from the outside be invited during the present canvass. Mr. Bryan, like Mr. Cleveland, is now persona non grata with the Democratic party. That organization is rough on its leaders .-St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

All of Senator Foraker's predictions and those of his associates as to the prosperity which the Foraker Porto Rican act would bring to Porto Rico, and to our trade with that island under the act, have been more than real-ized.—Mansfield News.

Foraker and Hanna undeniably constitute the heaviest team sent to the senate from any state. Ohio is not only the mother of presidents; she is the fertilizer of big brain growths .-

Theordore Roosevelt is the man to take up the burden which McKinley laid down. No one can doubt the sincerity, the strength of purpose, the courage, or patriotism of this sterling young man, who has been called to the exercise of a great trust.
